

C.S.U. Channel Islands

New Course * Fall 2009

Chem 344 / Phys 344

Energy and Society

Ahmed Awad, Chemistry

Brian Rasnow, Physics

What is energy? Where is it? How much do we have? How do we use it? How can we conserve it? What are its environmental, social, and political consequences?

We'll explore conventional and unconventional energy sources, build windbelts and biogas digesters, and seek understanding of local and global energy issues.

TTh 4:30-5:45pm

3 units